G 5

I think that an exit test would Probley mess people up on graduateing what if some 12th graders who supost to graduate can't Pass the test People will Just drop out cause no body wants to haft to come back to school over an exit test. But to some people it would Be good to have an exit test to see what people realy learned in high school, and what they forgot. But I would take the test one time Just to see how bad it is and redy to pass it and if I could not Pass it I would quit. Cause I wouldnt want to come and her the same teachers teach the same stuff over and over agan.

Score Point: 2

This response is considered flawed. A low degree of proficiency in persuasive writing skills is reflected. The writer's position seems to be that passing exit tests should not be a graduation requirement because students who do not pass will "drop out." However, the inclusion of a positive effect of testing (to see what people really learned in high school), and the writer's willingness to take the test once are contradictory and make this position unclear. There is very little development and no apparent organization. Additionally, serious writing errors are displayed.
